GALLERY M to Host Renoir and the Masters of Impressionism Show
Renowned Impressionists Works for Sale

Denver, April 10, 2006 -- Renoir & The Impressionists, a rare collection of paintings, drawings, etchings and lithographs of Impressionists Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Pissarro, Cassatt, Manet, Gauguin and Cezanne, will be on display and for sale at GALLERY M in Cherry Creek North from May 5 – 7. The preview begins April 28th.

Alexandre Renoir, the great-grandson of Pierre-Auguste Renoir, will be present at the opening receptions for the impressionism show. Alexandre Renoir will present a series of his original works and discuss his great-grandfather's legacy. While at the gallery during Renoir's appearances, collectors will have the opportunity to hear him speak about his work as well as his great grandfather's and other master impressionist's works that are represented in the collection. Renoir will personally sign any work of art purchased from his original selection during the selling exhibition.

For The Impressionist selling exhibition, many of the works available are one-of-a-kind graphics by these great artists and are museum-quality. For collectors, art enthusiasts as well as novices, this is a unique opportunity to view these priceless works and own a piece of art history.

The artwork of Alexandre Renoir displays the beauty and charm reminiscent of the style of his great-grandfather and the Impressionism period. Alexandre was born in Cagnes Sur Mer in the south of France, where his great grandfather spent the last 12 years of his life. Although Alexandre's family moved to Canada when he was four, he grew up surrounded by art and artists.
