Energy and Wind Symposium:
“LEADERS AND THEIR FOLLOWERS”
OPENS CHERRY CREEK NORTH

Denver – August 11, 2008 – GALLERY M is honored to host a special energy symposium on August 18th. “Energy and Wind,” moderated by Morey Wolfson, energy and utility expert and program manager to Colorado Governor Bill Ritter (D) on energy policy. Mr. Wolfson will guide attendees through the controversial options available to Coloradoans and Americans this voting season related to our energy independence. Mr. Wolfson has been amongst others an advisor to state and national energy commissions, corporations as well as a respected contributor at NREL in Golden. This unique discussion will feature national oil and gas, utility and consumer advocates and begins at 7 pm. Cover charge is $25. A select screening of the documentary “LUBIE LOVE” – How America loves to drive and is addicted to oil – will debut along side the amazing “Leaders and Their Followers” photography collection.

The backdrop for the symposium includes works by renowned photographers such as, Neil Leifer (Ali/Liston), Alfred Eisenstaedt (VJ DAY and Kennedy in the Oval Office), Margaret Bourke-White (Gandhi), John Dominis (Black Power Salute, Mexico Olympics) and Leonard McCombe (Cowboy, 1949).

Last minute invitations are available by placing an RSVP at GALLERYM.COM.
