CHERRY CREEK'S GALLERY M LAUNCHES ESTABLISHED "X"er IMMIGRANT POP PHOTOGRAPHER WITH SOLO SHOW

"PIXEL" – EVOLUTION OF THE PHOTOGRAPH, Officially opens November 5, with special "salon" events running through January 31, 2010.

DENVER, COLORADO – OCTOBER 23, 2010 – GALLERY M of Cherry Creek announced today the opening of a new online selling exhibition featuring photography's rising star – Alex Guofeng Cao. Once a child immigrant educated in America, CAO has been placed as one of the leading young photographers working today and recognized for "pixilating" contemporary photography.

GALLERY M proudly presents a three month photography exhibition online and by appointment featuring CAO's "image within an image" photographs. Cao's "pixelated photographs" are paired with the large statuesque presence of the final works. His subjects include presidents, celebrities, art luminaries, and history stitched by his mosaic process. Titles include JFK vs. Jackie, Marilyn Monroe vs. Monalisa, President Lincoln vs. President Obama and Bridget Bardot vs. Eve. Each work brings out the tension of the characters and the implied discussion that society has found for each icon.

ALEX's recognition continues from his success at 2009 Art Basel Miami with collectors and the media. He has been actively collected in national galleries and established auctions, enjoyed features in major publications like The Miami Herald, Art in America, The Art Quarterly, WOW (Women on Web), along with his daily routine as a leading photographer working with notable publications from Vogue to Maxim magazines.

The November salons begin at 6PM to 8PM on Friday November 5 2010. Subsequent events are planned and details will be made available at gallerym.com

The focal point of "PIXEL" provides a chance for seasoned as well as first-time collectors to add significant images to a collection. Included are iconic chromogenic photographs mounted on dibond plexiglass, limited in edition and as large as 108 inches!
